René Zahnd appointed as new CEO of Swiss Prime Site AG

Olten, 13 April 2015 – Swiss Prime Site AG's Board of Directors has appointed René Zahnd (1966, Swiss) as new Chief Executive Officer and successor to Markus Graf. He will assume his position as CEO no later than as at 1 May 2016.

The designated CEO René Zahnd is a proven real estate expert with years of extensive management experience in the real estate sector. He holds a law degree and graduated as attorney-at-law from the University of Berne. He extended his broad-based background in the construction and real estate industry as Head of Legal Services at Losinger Construction AG starting from 2004, assuming responsibility at the operating level for Project Development for the Central Switzerland region at Losinger. In 2007, he moved to general contractor Losinger/Marazzi as Director of Project Development, German-speaking Switzerland. From May 2009, René Zahnd held the position of Head of Project Development, German-speaking Switzerland at Implenia. From March 2010, he assumed responsibility as Head of Implenia Real Estate and thus became a member of group management. From February 2014, he assumed the position of Head of Modernisation and Development at Implenia.

«René Zahnd is distinguished by his excellent track record at the strategic and operating levels», declares Hans Peter Wehrli, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Swiss Prime Site AG. «He provides all the necessary prerequisites for the successful further development of Swiss Prime Site.»

Markus Graf, who is stepping down from his post for reasons of age, will continue to assume full responsibility as CEO up to the end of April 2016 at the latest, extensively integrating René Zahnd into his position as the new CEO. The Board of Directors will acknowledge the extraordinary performance and achievements of Markus Graf at a later time.
