Swiss Prime Site: Nomination of Barbara Frei-Spreiter and Thomas Studhalter for the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of Swiss Prime Site will recommend to the General Meeting of Shareholders on 27 March 2018 that Dr. Barbara Frei-Spreiter and Thomas Studhalter be elected as new Board members.

Barbara Frei-Spreiter is Zone President for Germany, Austria and Switzerland at Schneider Electric and CEO of Schneider Electric GmbH in Ratingen, Germany. Prior to that, she held various senior positions at ABB Group. She has been a member of the Board of Directors of Swisscom AG in Berne since 2012.

Thomas Studhalter is a partner and member of the Central Switzerland Regional Directorate of BDO Lucerne. Previously, he was a partner at KPMG, where he headed the Central Switzerland market region and the Auditing department. He has been a member of the Board of Directors of Datacolor AG in Lucerne since 2016.

With the nomination of these two highly qualified specialists, the Board of Directors of Swiss Prime Site is continuing its comprehensive renewal process. With Barbara Frei-Spreiter and Thomas Studhalter, the Group will further strengthen the financial and technological expertise which will be important for its future.
